

Is Part-Time Private School a Good Fit?

- Is full-time private school tuition not within your budget?
- Do you want to spend more time with your child at home?
- Do you want your child to show continuous progress in school?
- Do you want your child to experience a healthy balance of quality family time and high-quality education in a familial small group setting?
- Are you uncomfortable or unhappy with other school options?
- Are you dissatisfied with what other schools are teaching?
- Are you and/or your child overwhelmed with all you have to do in a day?
- Is there not enough time in the day for your child's extracurricular activities? Do you feel rushed?
- Do you want to have an active role in your child's education?
- Does your child or family experience anxiety when it comes to school?
- Are you homeschooling?

If you answered yes to any of these questions,
Pathways Private School may be just what you and your family need.

According to the U.S. Department of Education, the average number of hours that a 3rd grader should spend on each subject is as follows:

English, reading, or language arts	8-10 hours per week
Mathematics	4.5-6 hours per week
Social Studies/History	Almost 3 hours per week
Science	Almost 3 hours per week

At Pathways Private School, we can accomplish this and more. With part-time options, your child will still receive the high-quality education he or she deserves at affordable rates without missing out on important family time and extracurricular activities.

*There are no 1-day part time options.

There are no half-day part time options.

I recommend at least 3 days or more for Kindergarten and above. The 2-day plan is ideal for preschoolers or students who are also receiving a homeschool education, rigorous in curriculum and meeting state standards. Full time students will receive additional instruction and learning opportunities, following a rigorous curriculum, and adhering to state standards.
